

Galaxy 19

@ 97° West - Ku-Band

America's largest source of international programming in the broadcast arc

Reaches a large community of:

- Whole coverage of all the United States, Canada, Central America and Caribbean
- A potential of 123 million TV households in the USA
- Reaches about 60 million households speaking another language than English at home
- The single largest source of international programming in the United States (broadcasts over 60% of all international programs serving the American video market)

On this satellite, Globecast offers:

- Coverage across North America, receivable by antennas as small as 75cm
- 5 platforms operated in Culver, LA
- A neighborhood of 100+ channels from all world's regions
- Support to develop your channel's audience with our global sales force's regional expertise and worldwide fiber network

Carries a prime and diverse neighborhood

- More than 290 television and radio ethnic channels representing more than 60 countries in about 40 different languages. From Africa, Asia, Europe, Middle East, North and South America
- 88% Free-To-Air
- Including major international broadcasters such as RTP, Al Jazeera, Global Arabic Bouquet, Saudi Sports, TVP Polonia, Duna, Russia Today, 2M Monde, TV Congo, CNC, VTV, Telesur and also for the US QVC, Daystar, ...

Customer References:

