

SES-3

@ 103° West - C-Band

A very wide coverage at a competitive price in the US center cable arc

Reaches a large community of:

- Exceptional coverage of North and Central America, Caribbean with connection to North Colombia and Venezuela
- Benefits from neighborhood and community of close AMC-18@105°W
- Over 4,500 existing headends including MDU (Multi-Dwelling Units) and corporate headends
- A potential reach of 115M TV homes and 60+ million cable subscribers in the U.S.A
- Reaches 99.9% of US Subs (Cable, IPTV and DTH)

On this satellite, Globecast offers:

- Uplink from Los Angeles, for wide coverage with easy reception in North America, Central America and the Caribbean
- All the benefits of sharing a neighborhood and community with AMC-18 thanks to dual feed antennas implemented and used by major cable headends
- A diverse mix of content and programmers: national U.S. networks and affiliates, American and foreign cable channels, VoD, PPV, enterprise and government services
- DigiCipher II digital compression standard compatible with all cable and MSO operators in Northern and Central America and the Caribbean along with IRD management

Carries a prime and diverse neighborhood:

- 120+ TV and radio channels, 40+ Free-To-Air, 30+ in HD
- A mix of international and American entertainment, news, ethnic, rural and thematic programs:
  - Networks channels as Fox, NBC, ION Network, Univision Comcast, In Demand
  - Sports: Fox Sports, TyC sports
  - International and regional: TV Globo, DW, Jus Punjabi, Tutv, CineLatino, Daystar TV, NTN 24, GMA, Tele Salvador, RCN Nuestra, Cine Mexicano, TV Dominicana, etc.

Customer References:

