

Galaxy 19

@ 97° West - Ku-Band

The largest community of multi-cultural channels

Reach:

- The entire United States (including Hawaii), Canada, Central America and the Caribbean region
- Potential to reach ~120 million TV households in the United States
- Potential to reach +60 million people who speak a language other than English at home (USA)
- Galaxy 19 is the largest single source of international programming in the United States- more than 60% of international broadcasters use the G19 platform to make their content available to viewers across North America, Central America and the Caribbean region.
- Globecast's Content Acquisition, Aggregation and Distribution (CAAD) team further assists international broadcasters seeking to expand their reach by brokering distribution deals with cable, telco, satellite, OTT and other pay TV platforms around the world

Globecast offers:

- High-powered Ku-band direct-to-home (DTH) satellite coverage across North America to small antennas (75-90cm)
- Five platforms originating from Globecast's Los Angeles Media Center in Culver City, CA
- Experienced sales staff offering global support with regional expertise
- Access to worldwide fiber and IP platforms to provide the most cost-effective solutions for channel growth

Superior and diverse neighborhood:

- 300 television and radio ethnic channels representing more than 60 countries in over 30 languages
- 88% Free-To-Air
- Major international broadcasters include: RTP, Al Jazeera, Global Arabic Bouquet, Saudi Sports, TVP Polonia, Duna, Russia Today, 2M Monde, TV Congo, CNC, VTV, Telesur and also for the US QVC, Daystar

Customer References:

