

SES-5

@ 5° East - Ku-Band

The most powerful Sub-Saharan satellite in Ku-band – a fast growing neighborhood in a diverse and dynamic emerging TV market!

Reach:

- A potential of 173 million TV households with an estimated 22 million increase until 2021
- About 50 countries covered and a growing demand for TV content by satellite
- Existing and growing Free-to-air, cable, DTT and MMDS audiences
- 19 million pay-TV subscribers
- Home of new Pay-TV packages as Zuku, StarSat and Openview HD
- A growing community of Free-to-Air channels

Globecast offers:

- All means to get your program to SES-5
- One-hop delivery from Europe to the entire Sub-Saharan African region with 2 DTH DVB-S platforms managed from Paris
- Assistance to build your own Pay-TV network or to integrate existing Pay-TV packages*
- Receiving antennas as small as 60cm to 90cm depending on the area
- end to end services to ensure your broadcast

Superior and diverse neighborhood:

- 514+ TV channels with 11 in HD and 102 radios with prime regional, pan-African and international programming
- 3.8 million TV households
- 65 French channels with 12 free
- Diverse content from major broadcasters in multiple languages – everything from news and sports to cultural, educational and religious programming

Customer References:

To watch our programs : DVB-S, MPEG 2, 12034 Mhz, Horizontal, 27,5 QPSSK, FEC ¼

* Subject to EPG agreement reached between The Pay TV package and the broadcaster