

Cinema Delivery

A digital transfer solution for your film and cinema content

Cinema chains, movie theaters and film distributors: embrace the digital transition and streamline content delivery to the projector room.

Globecast provides a top-tier, efficient digital content transfer – covering all you need from site deployment to post-transfer support.

Let Globecast's expertise work for you.

Main Users

- Cinema chains and theater programmers
- Film and trailer distributors
- Film laboratories
- Advertising and PR agencies

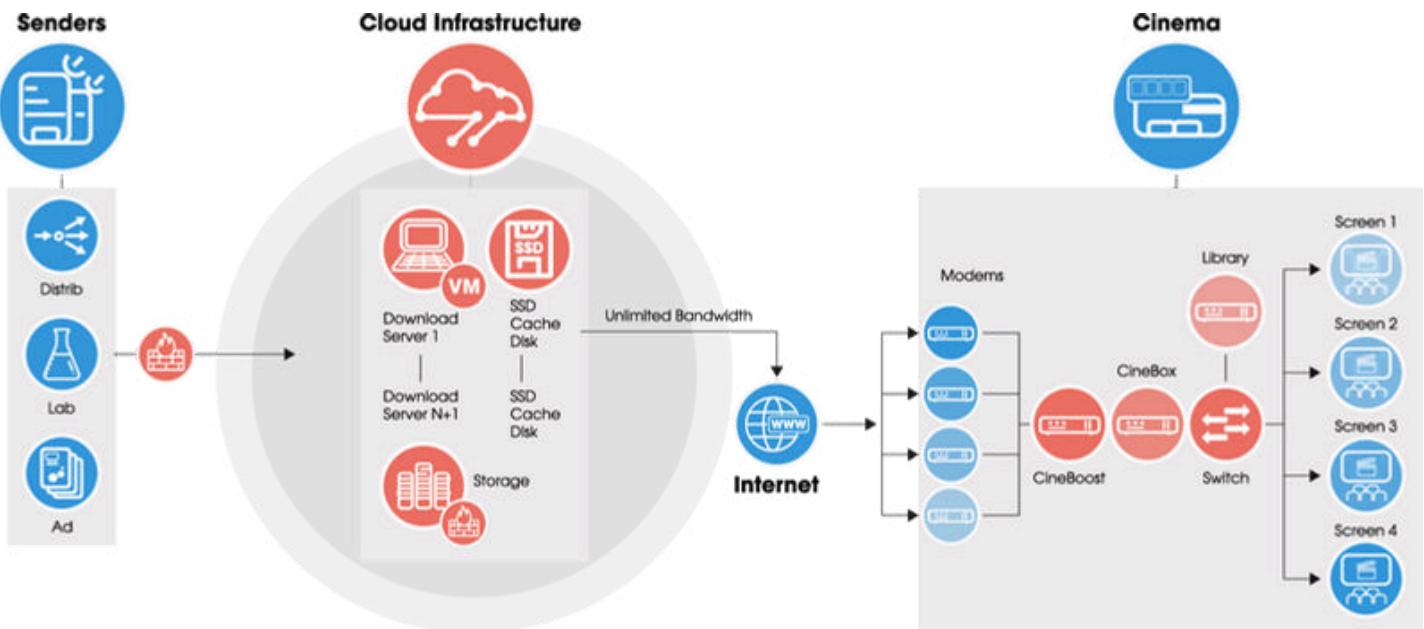

Key numbers

- 1 200 cinemas + 4 900 screens connected
- 50 000 deliveries every month

- How can we help?
- You want to learn more?
- www.globecast.com

Solution features

- Quality control performed and managed by Globecast
- Ingest and storage of digital copies (DCP) at Globecast facilities
- Web-based content management with real time theater overview
- Automated or Manual DCP transfers, with estimated transfer time and live verification
- Traffic prioritization to ensure secure, reliable delivery
- Online monitoring accessible via smartphone or tablet
- Delivery notification via email or text message

Service Components:

- Globecast CineBox
Simplify digital file exchanges with automatic ingest into the cinema library
- Globecast CineBoost
Accelerate transfer times by using multiple broadband lines simultaneously

Why Globecast?

- Access to movie and alternative content libraries
- Faster and secure transfers with Globecast fully-redundant fiber platform and CineBoost technology
- Significant savings on production of master copies and duplication of hard drives
- Reduced logistical costs
- Improved ad management
- DCI support
- Compatible with most cinema equipment (TMS, library, JPEG200 player)
- 24/7 Technical support and supervision